1. On 26 September 1953, the barracks installation in Meissen-Bonitzsch (1602) was occupied by about 100 soldiers who wore red-bordered black epaulets, most of them with artillery insignia. Two buildings of the barracks section housing these troops were lighted at dusk. Source believed the other section of the installation to have been vacant. Between 19 and 26 September, increased activity however, no training was observed in the barracks area. The garages were still empty. Thirty to forty soldiers engaged in callisthenics almost daily. Residents told source that the troops were expected to return on 15 October. Truck [] was identified in traffic from and to the barracks installation. 25X1B
